CollegeInvest Honors Erie Counselor
Julie Pohlman recognized as Counselor of the Month

Erie, CO – CollegeInvest, in partnership with the Colorado Council on High School/College Relations and Denver’s Channel 7, is proud to honor Julie Pohlman of Erie High School as January’s Counselor of the Month.

“High school counselors often are unsung heroes, encouraging students to dream and accomplish their goals,” said Judy Ransom of CollegeInvest, Colorado’s higher education financing resource. “They wear many hats, from a higher education resource to a friendly face to talk to on a bad day.”

The Counselor of the Month program is designed to give counselors the recognition they deserve. CollegeInvest is a not-for-profit division of the Colorado Department of Higher Education.

Margie Yaste nominated Pohlman for the award after witnessing her commitment the Erie High School community.

Yaste wrote that Pohlman demonstrates “the utmost kindness confidentiality and care” in her interactions with students and colleagues.
